ARCHBISHOP'S CHARITIES & DEVELOPMENT DRIVE

Stewardship is a way of life; we recognize by faith that everything we are and everything we have are gifts from God. Stewardship is not a matter of giving a little more; rather, it is a way of life.

"Do not be afraid; just have faith." Mark 5-36

Jesus said spoke these simple words to the synagogue official before curing the little girl. We are all faced with challenges and tribulations daily. Do we truly have faith as good stewards and place things in His hands or are we afraid and feel troubled?

www.isupportABCD.com

Como discípulo de Jesús, un mayordomo cristiano recibe los dones de Dios con gratitud, los administra con responsabilidad y los comparte con alegría, devolviendo al Señor generosamente su tiempo, su talento y su tesoro.

"Jesús les dijo: "¿Por qué tienen tanto miedo? ¿Aun no tienen fe?" Todos quedaron espantados" -Marcos 4:35-41

Cuando el viento y las tormentas nos golpean en la vida diaria, nosotros, como corresponsables cristianos, ¿tratamos de resolver las dificultades a solas o nos acercamos al Señor con pura fe?

WHO'S MORE GENEROUS?

Does the Christian duty to help the poor seem to be overwhelming? We hear more and more about the homeless and jobless. Even in St. Paul's time there was more than enough poverty to go around. He was trying to build interest (in our second reading) in a project to help the Christians in Jerusalem. We see two of his reasons here.

First he tells what fine Christians they are, and hopes that they will be just as good in giving to his collection. Paul is challenging them to continue to show their love for God in their support for fellow Christians. The second reason was to show a good example: By helping the church in Jerusalem, they would show that Christians were united in faith and love for each other.

The main example he uses is Jesus, who made himself poor (i.e., human) so that we could be rich in grace and forgiveness. Paul challenges them, and us, to follow that example in giving from our wealth so that others can survive. Note that he doesn't expect them to live in poverty, just to share what they have out of love for Christ.

Today, we can ask ourselves, "Do I give to the poor because I feel guilty about all that I have? Or do I want to show my love for Jesus when I see him in the poor?" By looking at why we give to charities, we may find ourselves being even more generous than we expected.

-Tom Schmidt

*Sing the praises of the Lord,
you his faithful people;
praise his holy name.?*

-Ps. 30:4

*Ustedes, fieles del Señor, ¡cántenle himnos!, ¡alaben
su santo nombre!*

-Salmo 30:4

¿QUIÉN ES MÁS GENEROSO?

¿Parece abrumador el deber cristiano de ayudar a los pobres? Escuchamos cada vez más sobre las personas sin hogar y sin trabajo. Incluso en la época de San Pablo había pobreza más que suficiente para todos. Estaba tratando de generar interés (en la segunda lectura) en un proyecto para ayudar a los cristianos en Jerusalén. Vemos aquí dos de sus razones.

Primero, les asegura que son buenos cristianos y espera que sean igual de buenos donando a su colección. Pablo los desafía a seguir mostrando su amor por Dios en su apoyo a sus hermanos cristianos. La segunda razón era dar un buen ejemplo: al ayudar a la Iglesia en Jerusalén, demostrarían que los cristianos estaban unidos en la fe y el amor mutuo.

El ejemplo principal que utiliza es Jesús, quien se hizo pobre (es decir, humano) para que nosotros pudiéramos ser ricos en gracia y perdón. Pablo los desafía a ellos, y a nosotros, a seguir ese ejemplo de dar de nuestras riquezas para que otros puedan sobrevivir. Tengan en cuenta que él no espera que vivan en la pobreza, sólo que compartan lo que tienen por amor a Cristo.

Hoy podemos preguntarnos: "¿Le doy a los pobres porque me siento culpable por todo lo que tengo? o ¿quiero mostrar mi amor por Jesús cuando lo veo en los pobres? Al analizar por qué donamos a organizaciones benéficas, podemos descubrir que seamos incluso más generosos de lo que esperábamos.

-Tom Schmidt

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

As Independence Day draws near, we think of the men and women of the military who serve with courage and competence, some far from home. How does the Church accompany them? In 1939, Pope Pius XII created an independent jurisdiction of the Catholic Church called the "Military Vicariate." In 1985 Pope John Paul II created the "Archdiocese for Military Services, USA." Spanning the globe and serving nearly one and a half million Roman Catholics, more than one thousand priests minister in hospitals, on military bases of all the armed forces, on ships at sea, and on the battlefield. The AMS does not ordain priests, but accepts priests on loan from religious orders and dioceses.

In 1824 a Jesuit priest named Adam Marshall enlisted in the Navy and died at sea in 1825. He was assigned as a "schoolmaster," but he sought out and ministered to Catholic sailors. Twenty years later, President Polk was worried that the war with Mexico was seen as anti-Catholic, so he recruited two Jesuit priests to serve in the army as chaplains. At the time of the Civil War, only about ten percent of Americans were Catholic. Military policies forced Catholic soldiers to attend Protestant services. The Church protested this rule, and many priests volunteered to become chaplains. Their witness and the courage of the "Nuns of the Battlefield" (several orders of sisters who assisted Civil War victims) helped temper prejudice against Catholics and pave the way for the life and ministry of this vigorous and unique archdiocese.
